Custom Solutions is a small and specialized publisher specializing in books that promote a happier world. Although No Limits is our first book, we plan to release other high quality and valuable books in the future. Some of these books will be written by Sara Morgan, but Custom Solutions intends to include titles from other inspiring authors. However, none of this will occur until the No Limits book has sold at least 10,000 copies, thus establishing the validity of Custom Solutions as a publisher.
